Plaintiffs, Insured Maintenance, LLC and Fresco Polishing LLC for their Complaint against Defendants Bruce Pacquette, James F. Shoemaker, Keither L.
Fredricksen and Fresco Companies Corp., and each of them, states as follows:

NATURE OF ACTION

1. This is an action for damages and injunctive relief arising out of Defendants' infringing, unauthorized, false and misleading use of Plaintiffs' identity, images, designations, references to organs of design and concepts and false and deceptive statements made to consumers on Defendants' brochures, notices, cards and public sites.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff, Insured Maintenance, LLC (the "Company"), is a Minnesota limited liability company formed March 30, 2009, owned exclusively by Jason C.
Richmond ("Richmond"), a Nevada resident, which maintains its principal place of business at 7841 12th Avenue S., Bloomington, Minnesota 55425.

3. Plaintiff, Fresco Polishing LLC (“Fresco Polishing”), is a Minnesota limited liability company formed February 27, 2012, owned exclusively by Richmond, which maintains its principal place of business at 7841 12th Avenue S., Bloomington, Minnesota 55425.

4. Defendant Bruce Paquette (“Paquette”) is a resident of the State of Minnesota and until January 2017 he was employed by the Company as General Manager.

5. Defendant James F. Shoemaker (“Shoemaker”) is a resident of the State of Minnesota and until January 2017 he was an employee of the Company.

6. Defendant Keith L Fredricksen (“Fredricksen”) is a resident of the State of Minnesota and until January 2017 he was an employee of the Company.

7. Defendant Fresco Companies Corp. (“Fresco Corp.”) is a Minnesota corporation formed by Paquette, Shoemaker and Fredricksen on December 23, 2016, which maintains its registered office address at 7841 12th Avenue S., Bloomington, Minnesota 55425—the same address as Plaintiffs’ principal places of business in Minnesota.

8. Upon information and belief Fresco Corp. is owned by Paquette, Shoemaker and Fredricksen.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

9. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1338 and supplemental jurisdiction over the state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367. Venue lies in this District under 28 U.S.C. § 1391 (b) and (c). This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants. This Court has jurisdiction over each of the claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§1331 and 1367, as this action arises under the Lanham Act, 15 U.S. Code § 1125 et seq.

10. This Court also has jurisdiction over each of the claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1332. The parties are diverse and the amount in controversy exceeds $75,000.00, exclusive of interests and costs.

11. This Court has jurisdiction over Defendants because they transact business in Minnesota and are otherwise subject to jurisdiction in this state. Venue is appropriate in this judicial district under 28 U.S.C. §§1391.

12. Defendants have purposefully, continuously and systematically conducted business in Minnesota by, inter alia, advertising, promoting and selling their services in Minnesota. Defendants' advertising, promotion and selling is conducted primarily through highly interactive websites accessible at the domain names through which Defendants offer for sale and sell products to Minnesota residents by making deceptive and misleading statements and by infringing Plaintiffs' common law identity. Defendants thus transact business over the internet with Minnesota residents, enter into contracts with Minnesota residents via the internet, and collect payment for products from Minnesota residents via the internet. Defendants have willfully engaged in unauthorized, false and misleading uses of Plaintiffs' identity, which has caused and continues to cause harm to Plaintiffs which do business in Minnesota. Defendants continue to engage in unauthorized, false and misleading use of Plaintiffs' identity even after the nature of these uses have been brought to Defendants' attention by Plaintiffs.

FACTS

13. The Company designs and markets unique concrete grinding, polishing, staining, coloring and services, many features of which are proprietary, and janitorial services and maintenance.

14. Fresco Polishing holds the exclusive rights to the tradename “Fresco Polishing” based in part on its registration as a Minnesota company under the company name containing the tradename.

15. Fresco Polishing granted an exclusive license to the Company giving it the rights to use, market and promote the arbitrary, fanciful and non-functional term “Fresco Polishing” as a unique service in the concrete coloring, grinding, polishing, staining and coloring market in the United States.

16. Starting in 2012 the Company began doing business under the tradenames “Fresco Polishing” and “Fresco Custom Concrete”.

17. Plaintiffs estimate they spent over $90,000 between 2012 and the end of 2016 to promote their services under the tradenames and trademarks “Fresco Polishing” and “Fresco Custom Concrete” and are retired to recover this amount plus costs and fees.

18. The Company advertised its tradenames in the Minnesota home and garden shows, mailings, brochures, sponsorship, radio advertising and websites.

19. As a result of the Company’s continuous use of the words and phrases “Fresco Polishing” and “Fresco Custom Concrete” in Minnesota over the past five years the Company owns the common law trademarks “Fresco Polishing” and “Fresco Custom Concrete” in connection with its concrete services in Minnesota.

20. The “Fresco Polishing” and “Fresco Custom Concrete” trademarks are distinctive and suggestive and are not descriptive and are therefore valid and protectable.

21. At all relevant times Paquette, Shoemaker and Fredricksen were employees of the Company, had access to the Company’s customer lists, sales information, pricing, financial records, business equipment utilized in the business, and all other proprietary information, including knowledge of the protected tradenames and trademarks.

22. From approximately 2009 until December 2016 Defendants Paquette and Shoemaker as employees of the Company (Defendant Fredricksen became an employee in 2014) were all engaged in the business of promoting the Company through marketing and advertising using the Company’s protected tradenames and trademarks.

23. Upon information and belief sometime in late 2016, while still employed by the Company, Defendants Paquette, Shoemaker and Fredricksen conspired together to create a competitive enterprise and take and usurp the Company’s proprietary information, customer lists, tradenames and trademarks and compete with the Company.

24. Upon information and belief Defendants Paquette, Shoemaker and Fredricksen formed Fresco Companies Corp. (“Fresco Corp.”) as a Minnesota corporation on December 23, 2016.

25. The name “Fresco Companies Corp.” is derived from the protected tradenames and trademarks “Fresco Polishing” and “Fresco Concrete”, which are owned by the Company.

26. Fresco Corp. registration with the State of Minnesota indicates its registered office address is at 7841 12th Avenue S., Bloomington, Minnesota 55425, which is the Company's address in Minnesota.

27. Upon information and belief, Defendants Paquette, Shoemaker and Fredricksen control and direct the operations of Fresco Corp., and Fresco Corp. is the alter ego and agent of Defendants Paquette, Shoemaker and Fredricksen. Accordingly, Fresco Corp. and Defendants Paquette, Shoemaker and Fredricksen are jointly responsible for the wrongdoings alleged in this complaint.

28. Defendants do business on a regular basis through their agents and representatives in the State of Minnesota.

29. Defendants created a company with a confusingly similar tradename as that of Fresco Polishing for the purpose of confusing the public consumers as to who the consumers were dealing with and to hide the true origin of Defendants' company.

30. Defendants have publicly advertised and marketing themselves as being "Fresco Companies", "Fresco Custom Concrete", "Fresco Polishing" and other derivatives of "Fresco" in the concrete servicing marketplace. For example, Defendants have created and linked their new enterprise with the Company's tradename and trademarks on the Better Business Bureau site to confuse and mislead consumers by indicating an endorsement, sponsorship, approval or affiliation that does not exist and is misleading.

31. The Company's tradenames and trademarks represent valuable goodwill for the benefit of Plaintiffs.

32. The Company's trademarks have developed trademark significance and meaning to purchasers and potential purchasers of the Company's services. The Company's trademarks have come to indicate to purchasers that the sources they are dealing with are the creators and originators in Minnesota of the services offered by the Company.

33. Defendants' use of their company name and words and phrases that are identical to or confusingly similar to the tradename and trademarks of the Company.

34. Consumers are likely to consider Defendants' "fresco polishing" and "fresco concrete polishing" offered by "Fresco Companies Corp." to be services affiliated with those offered by Plaintiff "Fresco Polishing", creating a likelihood of confusion.

35. Due to the similarity of Plaintiff's tradename and trademarks, the addresses of the registered offices of the companies and the closely related nature of the services offered, customers and potential customers are likely to believe Defendants' services originate from Plaintiffs' resulting in a likelihood of confusion in the marketplace and damage to Plaintiffs.

36. Defendants' use of Plaintiffs' tradenames and trademarks is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception that Defendants' services are actually those of Plaintiffs or otherwise endorsed, sponsored, or approved by Plaintiffs causing further damage to the Plaintiffs.

37. Upon information and belief, Defendants were aware of Plaintiffs trademarks and deliberately chose the trademarks "fresco polishing" and "fresco polishing concrete" to trade upon Plaintiffs' reputation and goodwill.
